General Professional Experience:

After graduating Order of the Coif cum laude from the University of Pennsylvania Law School in 1991, I spent eight years practicing bankruptcy and commercial litigation at two major law firms in Philadelphia. I then worked for two years in the Bankruptcy Department at Richards, Layton and Finger, where I worked under Tom Ambro (briefly), Mark Collins and Dan DeFranceschi. In 2002, I formed Christopher D. Loizides, P.C., n/k/a Loizides & Associates.

Experience and Familiarity with Bankruptcy Law:

I have practiced bankruptcy law for over 14 years and have considerable experience in the area of bankruptcy litigation. The size of cases I have worked on range from small preference actions to highly complex fraudulent conveyance actions involving tens of millions of dollars.

Mediation Training:

I completed the intensive seminar taught by Abrams Mediation and a follow-up advanced seminar. Abrams Mediation is the authorized training program for the Bankruptcy Courts of the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York. I am also a member of the Delaware Bar Association's Section on Mediation.

Mediation Experience:

I have represented parties in approximately a dozen mediations.

Area of Expertise:

The focus of my practice concerns commercial matters, particularly bankruptcy litigation in business bankruptcies.

General Pertinent Business or Legal Experience:

As a small firm practitioner, I have an appreciation for business concerns of my clients.

Other Pertinent Information:

Fee Structure

$245.00 per hour plus expenses.
