

August 11, 2008

Rachel E. Deming
888 Seventh Avenue
45th Floor
New York, NY 10106

Telephone No.: 212-757-0007
Facsimile No.: 212-757-0469
E-Mail: red@selaw.com

- I.     Profession                      Accrediting Agency or Jurisdiction                      Date of Admission
- Attorney                      New York State Bar Association                      1983
   Southern District of New York                      1984
   Eastern District of New York                      1984
- II.    Professional Organizations                      Date of Admission                      Active/Inactive
- American Bar Association                      1983 to present                      Active
   Litigation Section, Dispute Resolution and Environmental Committees
   SEER, Dispute Resolution and Environmental Disclosure Committees
- Association of the Bar of the
City of New York                      1992 to present                      Active
   Environmental Law Committee
- New York State Bar Association                      1985-1990
   Dispute Resolution Section                      2008- present                      Active
- III.   General Professional Experience
- Started as a litigation associate at Shearman & Sterling working on international banking issues relating to the country debt crisis of the 1980's. Also worked on some US bankruptcy cases and M&A litigation. Was a corporate lawyer for one year, drafting contracts. Moved in-house and managed a wide variety of legal issues including regulatory negotiations, toxic tort cases, preparation of complex construction contracts, and insurance claims. Now focused on commercial litigation, environmental issues and mediation.
- IV.   Experience and Familiarity with Bankruptcy Law

Worked on bankruptcy litigations as an associate at Shearman & Sterling. As in-house lawyer, evaluated whether to make claims in several bankruptcy cases when environmental issues were involved. Am currently working with EPA on financial assurance issues, and status of environmental cleanup obligations under the bankruptcy laws.

V. Mediation Training

Center for Dispute Settlement, Linda Singer and Michael Lewis instructors: Mediation for the Professional, November 16-19, 2005, 25 hours; Advance Mediation Training, April 27-29, 2006, 20 hours; Certificates of completion issued in both courses.

VI. Mediation Experience

On the mediation panels for civil cases in SDNY and bankruptcy panels for EDNY and SDNY. Participated in numerous mediations and other alternative dispute resolution proceedings as a participant, including two large toxic tort cases.

VII. Area of Expertise

Environmental law, banking law, financial statements, budget management, business management.

VIII. General Pertinent Business or Legal Experience

Scarola Ellis LLP, January 2007 - present, partner. Practice focuses on commercial litigation, environmental issues and mediation.

Ciba-Geigy Corporation and Ciba Specialty Chemicals Corporation, February 1992-January 2007, associate general counsel. Managed environmental legal issues and toxic tort litigation, advised the company on disclosure, insurance and banking issues.

Shearman & Sterling, August 1983-January 1992, associate. Worked on banking and M&A litigation.

IX. Other Pertinent Information

Excellent understanding of company operations and financial issues.

Kheel Center for the Resolution of Environmental Interest Disputes, Organizing Committee Member

Adjunct Professor, Pace Law School, Environmental Dispute Resolution Skills

Course, Fall 2009.

X. Fee Structure (Compensation and Expense Reimbursement)

Hourly Rate: $450.00/per hour

The Firm will include on its statements a charge in connection with services rendered in the amount of 3.5% of attorney time charges in lieu of typical law firm disbursement charges (e.g., staff overtime, long-distance telephone charges, facsimiles, postage charges, routine photocopying expenses and routine travel and meal expenses associated with attorney and staff overtime). The Firm will bill separately for other expenses and extraordinary disbursements, such as messenger and express delivery charges, travel outside of New York City, extraordinary photocopying charges and other extraordinary costs, and charges billed by third-parties.