III. General Professional Experience:

Since 1977 when I formed my current firm, my practice has focused on individuals and small businesses which has enabled me to obtain substantial empathy for real-world needs and concerns of ordinary people. Over the past 32 years, the breadth of my practice has expanded to represent larger business clients but I have always focused on understanding my clients' needs and attempting to deliver a result consistent with their budgets. Central to my practice has been a belief that litigation is detrimental to clients, and disputes should be resolved on a consensual basis. I also try to be sensitive to the individual concerns of my clients and to recognize that when people have disputes, often both sides are "right".

IV. Experience and Familiarity with Bankruptcy Law:

I am Board Certified by the American Board of Certification in both Consumer Bankruptcy Law and Business Law since 1993.

About 75% of my practice has been devoted to Bankruptcy Law. My firm files approximately 200 consumer bankruptcy cases each year, including both Chapter 7 and Chapter 13 cases. In addition, we often represent small and medium-sized business owners in Chapter 11 cases. I have had several larger Chapter 11 cases as well, including that of the internationally known fashion designer, Paolo Gucci. That case involved intensive negotiations with parties throughout the world to resolve franchise and licensing disputes as well as plan negotiations, which often lasted well into the night.

Recently, after one year in Bankruptcy Court, I confirmed a Chapter 11 case for a Westchester subsidiary of a Canadian computer manufacturing company. I have also represented numerous creditors in the Enron Bankruptcy, obtaining substantial recoveries for them. My work in one case resulted in the recovery of 2.5 million dollars for my client. Our firm also handles defense of Adversary Proceedings.

VI. Mediation Experience:

I believe I am uniquely qualified to serve as a bankruptcy mediator because of my extensive and broad based bankruptcy experience combined with over 28 years of General Practice. I have tremendous empathy for people and an ability to understand both sides of any problem. With few exceptions, I have successfully facilitated and negotiated resolution of substantially all business disputes and litigated matters in which I have been involved throughout my career.

As former Chairman of the Richmond County Bar Association Fee Dispute Committee, and currently as a member, I have handled numerous attorney fee disputes. Although technically denominated "Arbitration Proceedings" these situations are actually susceptible to mediated solutions. Because of my experience in representing business owners, I have learned that the cost of litigation is usually prohibitive, thus I commonly facilitate consensual resolution of disputes between my clients and other parties. I pride myself on my ability to stay focused on obtaining a solution at times when others have lost hope.

I have served as a Mediation Training Coach for the official Mediation Training program sponsored by the U.S. Bankruptcy Court (SDNY), on September 21, 2005.

I have successfully negotiated consensual settlements of complex litigation involving millions of dollars, pending in my own office.
