III. General professional experience:

Since 1981, I have devoted the majority of time to the practice skills associated with the area of insolvency and creditor rights. I serve as a member of the panel of US Bankruptcy Trustees for both the Eastern and Southern Districts of New York. I also serve as a member of the US Bankruptcy Court's Register of Mediators in the District of Delaware. I am senior managing partner of SilvermanAcampora LLP, a firm of 25 attorneys and 9 paralegals. Our firm represents debtors, creditors, trustees, creditor committees, liquidation trusts, defends in preference and fraudulent conveyance litigation and assists in acquisition projects.

IV. Experience and familiarity with bankruptcy law:

In my capacity as a Trustee, I have routinely resolved myriad disputes among creditors over such varied issues as perfection and priority of statutory and common law liens, title and distribution of proceeds from the sale of assets, professional fees and discovery requests. I have served as an adjunct professor at St. John's University's LLM Program on Consumer Bankruptcy. I lecture on bankruptcy related issues and have chaired or moderated panels on bankruptcy legislation, chapter 11 plan and liquidation, consumer bankruptcy and have been a speaker on the impact of bankruptcy on marital distribution including support, maintenance and equitable distribution.

V. Mediation Training:

Institute for Conflict Management, basic training, 16 hrs. sponsored by USBC-SDNY

VI. Mediation Experience:

I have served as a member of the Register of Mediators for the United States Bankruptcy Court, Southern District of New York since May 2, 1994. In that capacity I have served as mediator in dozens of bankruptcy matters, the most notable being Adelpia Communications Corp., Finley Kumble and Caldors, Inc. I have also served as a member of the Register of Mediators for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware since May 2009.
