STEP 3: Click Register for a PACER Account.

A screenshot of the CM/ECF NextGen website interface, enclosed in a red border. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links: "Register for an Account", "Find a Case", "File a Case", "My Account & Billing", "Pricing", and "Help". Below this, a breadcrumb trail shows "Home > Register for an Account". The main heading is "Non-attorney Filers for CM/ECF". The text explains that non-attorneys must register and lists the types of filers accepted. It also notes that registration provides access to case information and documents. Two bullet points describe the registration process for NextGen and CurrentGen. A blue button labeled "Register for a PACER account" is highlighted with a red arrow pointing to it from the left. At the bottom, a footer text directs users to the main PACER website for more information.

Non-attorney Filers for CM/ECF

Non-attorneys filing federal court records electronically must first register. Non-attorneys are considered: pro se filers, court reporters, interested parties, filing agents, creditors, trustees, or U.S. Trustees. Not all courts accept non-attorney filers and some only accept specific types of non-attorney filers.

Registration will give non-attorneys access to view case information and documents. Courts are using one of two versions of CM/ECF – NextGen or CurrentGen.

- NextGen CM/ECF: Register through this site if the court you want to file in uses NextGen CM/ECF. First time users will be prompted to register for a PACER account, followed by the electronic filing registration for the selected court.
- CurrentGen CM/ECF: First you need to register for a PACER account. Then, register with each district and/or bankruptcy court who uses CurrentGenCM/ECF.

Payment Information

There is no registration fee. However, the Judicial Conference of the United States has established a fee for access to information in PACER. All registered users will be charged as follows:

- Use of PACER systems will generate a $.10 per-page charge and is capped at $3.00 for single documents and case-specific reports that are more than 30 pages (e.g., docket reports, creditor listings, and claims register). NOTE: The $3.00 cap does not apply to search returns, reports that are not case specific, lists of cases, or transcripts.
- Audio files of court hearings retrieved via PACER will generate a $2.40 per-file charge.
- Judicial opinions accessed via PACER will not generate a charge.
- If your usage does not exceed $30 in a quarter, fees are waived.

Providing a credit card is optional. If you would like to register without providing a credit card, click Next below without entering any information on this screen. For instant access to PACER, we will validate the credit card information you provide here. There is no registration charge; however, the credit card will be charged quarterly for any fees incurred. If you submit your registration request without providing credit card information, you will receive an activation code by U.S. mail in 7-10 business days.

* Credit card data is optional here. However, if you do provide a credit card, the marked fields below are required.
