Loss Mitigation Now Available in Cases Assigned to Judge Lord

By General Order dated December 8, 2009, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of New York adopted a Loss Mitigation Program to provide a comprehensive court-supervised program to facilitate consensual resolutions for debtors whose residential real property is at risk of foreclosure. At the time of the adoption of this order, the Loss Mitigation Program was available in all individual cases assigned under Chapter 7, 11, 12 or 13 of the Bankruptcy Code to Chief Judge Carla E. Craig, Judge Dorothy T. Eisenberg and Judge Elizabeth S. Stong, and any other Judge of this Court who may elect to participate in the program.

Please be advised that effective immediately, the Loss Mitigation Program will also apply in all individual cases assigned under Chapter 7, 11, 12 or 13 of the Bankruptcy Code to Judge Nancy Hershey Lord.
