Bankruptcy Noticing Center Service Interruption

Administrative Order No. 844

-----X
ORDER REGARDING BANKRUPTCY NOTICING CENTER SERVICE INTERRUPTION

Due to a service interruption affecting the Bankruptcy Noticing Center (“BNC”) beginning on or about October 9, 2026, certain notices required in bankruptcy cases and proceedings have not been transmitted. The Court finds that these circumstances constitute good cause for relief under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9006. It is, therefore, ORDERED that:

1. Affected Notices. No party shall be prejudiced by a failure to respond to a notice that was not served due to the BNC service interruption, subject to applicable law and further order of the Court.
2. Deadlines and Hearings. Upon request of a party in interest, or on its own initiative where permitted by law, the Court may extend or reset deadlines or continue hearings as necessary to address the interruption. Parties may request relief by written motion or orally at a previously scheduled hearing. Parties should confer when practicable and advise the Court whether the requested relief is agreed upon or opposed. All scheduled hearings shall proceed unless the Court orders otherwise.
3. Limited Scope of this Order. The relief granted in this Order is intended to prevent prejudice to those impacted by the BNC service interruption. Therefore, this Order applies solely to orders and notices served by the Court and shall not apply to motions, orders, and notices served by parties.
4. Further Orders. This Order shall remain in effect until further order of the Court.
